Dear Claimant:

Last December, Congress passed the Copyright Royalty Tribunal Reform Act of 1993, P.L. 103-198. It disbanded the Copyright Royalty Tribunal and transferred its functions to the Copyright Office. As a result, annual claims for copyright royalties are now to be filed with the Copyright Office.

Your 1993 cable satellite royalty claim was sent to the former Tribunal and forwarded to the Copyright Office. Although the Copyright Office received your claim after the statutory deadline, for this year only we are accepting claims timely filed with the former Tribunal.

In the future, all royalty claims must be either (1) mailed to: Copyright Arbitration Royalty Panel (CARP), P.O. Box 70977, Southwest Station, Washington, D.C. 20024 or (2) hand delivered to: Office of the General Counsel, Copyright Office, Room LM-403, Madison Building, 101 Independence Avenue, S.E., Washington, D.C. Using any other means of address, next year, cannot guarantee that your claim will be received on time.
